Subject: FW: Te Ohu Kaimoana - submission on Blue Endeavour application

Good morning Stevie-Rae

Thank you for your email requesting an extension for the Te Ohu Kaimoana submission for the Publicly Notified Resource Consent U190438. Council is bound by section 37A(1)(a) to avoid unduly lengthening or increasing the cost of a consent process for the applicant while at the same time enabling potential submitters to make an informed and thorough submission. The extension you have requested is of short duration, is unlikely to delay the process and enables you to make a thorough submission. Therefore Council considers the extension acceptable and will extend the submission period until Friday 20th December 2019.

Regards

Thank you kōrua,

Te Ohu Kaimoana would be grateful if we could have a waiver until 12pm on Friday 20 December. We don't anticipate requiring all of that time, but we're yet to receive iwi feedback on our draft submission and so we don't consider it's in a state to submit at this stage.

If I were to send through a bullet pointed list now (taken from our draft submission), would that count as our submission? Because we'd rather that not be the case. But we're happy to provide a list of points to help with any initial assessments you're doing on receipt of all submissions.

Ngā mihi,

Stevie-Rae

Good morning Stevie-Rae,

While my preference would be to receive at least a bullet-pointed submission from you by 5:00pm today, Council will consider any time waiver request.

Peter Johnson

Tena koe Stevie-Rae

Laws rang on Friday and my understanding from that call was that Te Ohu Kaimoana was going to get something in, in summary form, today to meet the deadline and then follow-up with a more detailed submission later this week.

Probably the only other option is to apply for a waiver for the deadline for submissions.

I have copied this email into Peter so he is aware of the situation.

Peter's advice would probably be to get your main points in support or opposition in today. I will leave it to him to provide further guidance.

Cheers

Pere

Mōrena Pere,

I understand Laws spoke with you last week about our submission on NZKS's Blue Endeavour resource consent application. Our draft is completed but we are awaiting iwi feedback.

Laws said you were going to speak with Peter Johnson about whether it would be okay for us to submit later in the week, by Friday at the latest. I just wanted to check that this approach was okay?

Thanks heaps,

Stevie-Rae
