

Marfells beach to Ure river

April 5th 2020

Mussel point looking at Dotterel nesting site

Mussel point looking towards Cape
Campbell

Example of Vehicle, Horse footprints and human footprints

Sheep outside farm
boundary fences
between mussel point
and Cape Campbell

Before Canterbury
gully

Canterbury gully

South of Canterbury
Gully

Heading to Long point

Looking north
before Long point

Long Point

Chancet rocks

Chancet Rocks

Between ward beach and the needles

Between ward beach and the needles. Stock Campsite

Between Ward
beach and needles

No farm boundary fence

Looking south to the needles

Stock marks at needles

Stock marks at the needles looking north

Looking north to the needles below the high tide

Looking south to the ure river to the
needles

KIA ORA Welcome To WARD BEACH RESERVE

Ward Beach is a unique section of coast and the reserve is a great spot for picnicking and walking. Reserve facilities include a toilet, picnic table and plenty of space for recreational activities. The beach is also used by the fishing industry.

The beach is there for your enjoyment but please:

- Do not litter.
- Remember to leave it as you find it.
- Do not feed the birds.
- Do not smoke or drink alcohol on the beach.
- Do not use motor vehicles on the beach.
- Take all your rubbish home or to the recycling centre.

Responsible Land Management
 HAURAKI GULF REGIONAL COUNCIL

SET NET RESTRICTIONS

Set nets are used to catch fish and shellfish. They are a type of fishing gear that is set in the water and catches fish as they swim into it. Set nets are used to catch fish and shellfish in the Hauraki Gulf. The following restrictions apply to set nets in the Hauraki Gulf:

- Set nets are prohibited in the following areas:
- Set nets are prohibited in the following areas:
- Set nets are prohibited in the following areas:

REGULATING OF SHELLFISH AND SEAWEED

Shellfish and seaweed are important resources in the Hauraki Gulf. They are used for food and for other purposes. The following regulations apply to shellfish and seaweed in the Hauraki Gulf:

- Shellfish and seaweed are protected in the following areas:
- Shellfish and seaweed are protected in the following areas:
- Shellfish and seaweed are protected in the following areas:

CHALLENGER FISHING RULES

Challenge fishing is a type of fishing that is used to catch fish and shellfish. It is a type of fishing that is used to catch fish and shellfish in the Hauraki Gulf. The following rules apply to challenge fishing in the Hauraki Gulf:

- Challenge fishing is prohibited in the following areas:
- Challenge fishing is prohibited in the following areas:
- Challenge fishing is prohibited in the following areas:

Whale & Dolphin

Whales and dolphins are important marine mammals. They are found in the Hauraki Gulf. The following information is provided for whales and dolphins in the Hauraki Gulf:

- Whales and dolphins are protected in the following areas:
- Whales and dolphins are protected in the following areas:
- Whales and dolphins are protected in the following areas:

Beach
Conservation Area
Walkers Only Please

Ward Beach Boulders

8mins ↑

FLAXBOURNE
SETTLEMENT
ASSOCIATION

Sign south of flaxbourne
river

Sign at the Ure
river

Saltworks
Pier

Human feces on beach

South of Pier

November 17 2021

No access at High tide

Access Point through a joining farm between long point and Cape Campbell

Access point at Long point

Farm Boundary fence

