Trade competition

- 3 The Arapaoa Marine Farmers are not trade competitors for the purposes of section 308C or 308CA of the Resource Management Act 1991 (the Act).

The Proceedings

- 4 The Arapaoa Marine Farmers are interested in the following particular issues:
- (a) Volume 2, Chapter 25 – Amend definition of “Māori Cultural values” to add (in bold) as follows:

“any natural attribute, resource, area, place or thing (tangible or intangible) which is of physical, economic, social, cultural, historic and/or spiritual significance to tangata whenua iwi.”

Relief sought

5 The Arapaoa Marine Farmers support the relief sought because it is consistent with the Act and the New Zealand Coastal Policy Statement 2010 (NZCPS). Further, the relief sought is consistent with the requirement to provide for the relationship of Maori and their culture and traditions with their ancestral lands, water, and other taonga as a matter of national importance in section 6(e) of the Act, and with the requirement to take into account the principles of the Treaty in section 8 of the Act and in NZCPS policy 2.

Dispute resolution

6 The Arapaoa Marine Farmers agree to participate in mediation or other alternative dispute resolution of the proceedings.
